Theology vs. Practical Religion

I can think of no better time than Lent to ask you to consider the merits of theology versus practical religion. (Think of theology as encompassing studying, reading, and talking about God. Think of practical religion as experiences with and of God.)

I found in my reflection time several weeks ago a passage from C.S. Lewis' The Joyful Christian in which Lewis considers the merits of each, using a powerful analogy. He introduces the analogy by telling the story of a man who once told Lewis that he had no use for theological talk but preferred experience. At that point, Lewis introduce his analogy of a map:

In the same way, if a man has once looked at the Atlantic [Ocean] from the beach, and then goes and looks at a map of the Atlantic, he also will be turning from real waves to a bit of colored paper. But here comes the point...there are two things you have to remember about [the map]. In the first place, it is based on what hundreds and thousands of people have found out by sailing the real Atlantic. In that way, it has behind it masses of experience just as real as the one you could have from the beach; only, while yours would be a single isolated glimpse, the map fits all those different experiences together. In the second place, if you want to go anywhere, the map is absolutely necessary. As long as you are content with walks on the beach, your own glimpses are far more fun than looking at a map. But the map is going to be more use than walks on a beach if you want to get to America.

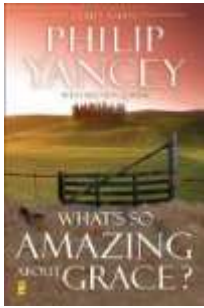

I don't know how you interpret Lewis' words, but I hear that both practical religion (our own personal experiences of God) AND theology (in the context of a Christian community known as Church) are absolutely necessary. Our individual experiences give us amazing and unique insights into God and should be treasured. At the same time, adding to our own experiences those of others gives us a much greater understanding of God's fullness and even gives us cause to seek ever more in our own experience with God. Even moreso, the map of others' experiences provides us with a map for continued growth in our relationships with God.

This Lenten season, it is my hope that you will both grow in your own relationship with God and seek the wisdom of others around you (and those who have come before you), so you can find new and amazing ways to grow in your relationship with God!

9:30 AM Sunday School Class

“What’s So Amazing About Grace”

Come and join Nancy Armbruster as she guides you through this book written by Philip Yancey.

“In What's So Amazing About Grace? award-winning author Philip Yancey explores grace at street level. If grace is God's love for the undeserving, he asks, then what does it look like in action? And if Christians are its sole dispensers, then how are we doing at lavishing grace on a world that knows far more of cruelty and unforgiveness than it does of mercy? Yancey sets grace in the midst of life's stark images, tests its mettle against horrific "ungrace." Can grace survive in the midst of such atrocities as the Nazi holocaust? Can it triumph over the brutality of the Ku Klux Klan? Should any grace at all be shown to the likes of Jeffrey Dahmer, who killed and cannibalized seventeen young men? In his most personal and provocative book ever, Yancey offers compelling, true portraits of grace's life-changing power. He searches for its presence in his own life and in the church. He asks, How can Christians contend graciously with moral issues that threaten all they hold dear?” -Online review

10:00 AM Sunday School Class: Fearless Conversation discussions with coffee and donuts.

Conversations are “Growing” after first service on Sunday’s

The upcoming conversations for March will be:

Why did Jesus tell such confusing stories?

Was Jesus racist, or sexist—or both?

What’s Jesus got against grownups?

What was really going on at Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem?

What if God wants more than I want to give?

If you are interested, please come for one or all of our session! Would love to have you.

—Lily Fitch - Conversationalist Leader

“The Light Between Oceans”

M. L. Stedman’s novel “The Light Between Oceans” was the February read for the FCC Bookworms. It is a story involving the arrival of a baby on the shore of an island where a lighthouse keeper and his wife live. Beth Sherry donated this book to our library a couple years ago and when the book club read it, it generated a great deal of conversation among the ladies regarding the dilemma brought about by the arrival of this small child. Many of the ladies couldn’t put it down--you will like this book.

Did you put an ornament on the family Christmas tree and have yet to retrieve it???? Please check the box on the information table in the Fellowship Hall.

Thanks!

Spring cleaning is just around the corner. Don't forget to gather up those old eye glasses you no longer need for donation to the Lion's Club and a good cause. A container for them is on the information desk in the Fellowship Hall until the end of March!

If you want an FCC Pictorial Directory and do not have one, please let our church secretary, Katie, know as soon as possible. We will also be adding new picture pages in the very near future for those who have a directory. Included will be a new membership list of church members as not everyone is in the pictorial directory. If you have a question, please ask Katie or Joyce Wittwer!

LENTEN LUNCHES

Easter is fast approaching, and that means LENTEN LUNCHES—always on Wednesdays at 12 noon starting February 25th. This is a great opportunity to have a soup lunch with friends and hear a very meaningful message from one of our church members. This year's messages will have to do with "the ways we are tempted and how God gets us through it", so please plan to come! This is also an opportunity for you to share the "soup of your labor" by signing up to bring a soup on Wednesday. Please look for the sign-up sheet on the information table in the Fellowship Hall. We will look forward to seeing you and any friends you want to bring along! If you have questions, please call Joyce Wittwer at 970-243-6214.

2015 CHILI COOK OFF

The Men's Disciples Fellowship had a very successful Chili Cook Off this past Sunday thanks to all of the great tasting chili's that were provided by 10 excellent cooks. There were three categories' that were in the competition. The Best Chili award was earned by Wilbur Lucore whose recipe is top secret, the best Youth Chili was earned by Josh Barton with his famous beef & clam chili and last but not least the best Presentation was earned by Tammy Ostermiller with her Daytona 500 theme. This event would not be possible if it were not for all of our dedicated Church Family and their guests that helped promote the 2015 Chili Cook Off. We had approximately 60 plus eaters and we raised $261.00 for the men's outreach. Thanks to all!

FEBRUARY MEN'S BREAKFAST

The Men's Disciples Fellowship monthly breakfast was another success this past Saturday not only was the food that was prepared by Lamar and Leonard great and plentiful as usual but we had a very interesting program provided by George Decker about his many adventures in search of Indian artifacts in the western United States. After seeing his slide show of different ruins that he found in such remote locations it is no wonder he is in such good shape. We had 23 men in attendance and raised a net of $43.00 which was added to men's outreach fund. If you have never attended the 3rd Saturday monthly breakfast I would strongly recommend that you do so, the fellowship is always fun and informative and it lets you have a chance to connect with your Church family and you are urged to invite guests.

Thanks to all that attended!

El Salvador Mission Trip 2015

"Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better, it's not!" --Dr. Suess

The El Salvador Mission Trip planning is well underway. I will be leaving on July 26, and returning on August 8. Once again, we will be working on the schools in the little town of Las Trincheras and any other needs that God presents to us.

I am asking now if there are any people in our congregation, or who you might know, who are interested in accompanying us.

This two week trip will change you in a way that I can't describe. You will laugh, you will cry, and your heart will move. The work isn't glamorous, and you saw the pictures of me at my most unglamorous self, but I wouldn't change that for a minute and am compelled to return to the sunny, happy, loveable people of El Salvador.

The cost is $1500 for room, board, translators, and transportation in country. Airfare is probably around $800. We book together. If the only thing holding you back from this experience is money, please see me. There may be a scholarship available, or we can work together on a fundraiser.

If you are unable to go, there are many other ways you can contribute to this mission. When it gets a little closer, I will talk about it, but for now please prayerfully consider coming along!

-Beth Sherry

Thank You To My Church Family

In “Merton’s Palace of Nowhere”, James Finley writes, “ Merton once told me to quit trying so hard in prayer. He said, ‘How does an apple ripen? It just sits in the sun.’ A small green apple cannot ripen in one night by tightening all its muscles, squinting its eyes and tightening its jaw in order to find itself the next morning miraculously large, red, ripe and juicy beside its small green counterparts. Like the birth of a baby or the opening of a rose, the birth of the true self takes place in God’s time. We must wait for God, we must be awake, we must trust in His hidden action within us.”

I would like to thank my church family for allowing me to take six weeks to spend time sitting in the Son, sitting in God’s Presence. Thank you for time to wait for God, realign and reconnect my life with Him, listen for His voice and direction and relax. When busyness takes over our lives, even when we are trying to do our work for God, we find ourselves caught in the tyranny of the urgent and neglecting the important. Busyness becomes the one we bow down to instead of God. We haven’t forgotten Him but we may rush through our time with Him, or not give Him our full attention. Everyone needs to stop and step back from the busyness every so often so they can focus on what is most important, their relationship with God. What a blessing it was to be able to stop and take that step back. My greatest wish for all of you would be that you could find a way to step back from your busyness and strengthen your relationship with God.

I want to especially thank several people who took on some of my duties while I was gone: Amy Brammer for leading KFC, Paula Schaffer for leading Jr. Church, Lily Fitch for providing the study for Night’ngals, Marian Velarde, Beverly Dorson and Beth Sherry for leading Lessons @ Lunch, and all the people who pitched in to get the undecorating done after Christmas.

Melanie

Make Plans to Order Easter Lilies

In the next few weeks, there will be a bulletin insert inviting you to order Easter Lilies in remembrance or honor of loved ones. Following is some interesting information about the significance of lilies in the Christian tradition*:

The Easter Lily has long stood as a symbol of purity, hope, innocence and peace... The Easter lily is a biblical flower commonly associated with the resurrection of Christ.

In Christian tradition, the Easter lily signifies rebirth and a new beginning. It is said that beautiful white lilies sprang up in the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus wept in the last hours before he was betrayed by Judas...

The lily is mentioned frequently throughout the bible and serves today as a beautiful reminder of the significance of the Easter season.

Lenten Announcements & Calendar

Lenten Daily Devotional: It's Never Too Late to Start

Lent has begun. Hopefully you are seeking and finding ways to turn toward God this Lenten season. If you're ready to add something new or to make a change to your daily pattern turning to God, don't forget that the Worship Committee is offering a Daily Lenten Devotional guide for your use. It can be picked up at either entrance to the sanctuary. And, it's never too late to start. Feel free to begin at the beginning and read the pages corresponding to the days you've missed or pick one up and begin with today's date. The important thing is to do something this Lenten season to draw you closer to God.

This year's devotional book was produced by the Society of St. Andrew, an organization committed to feeding America's hungry, something we should all support. The devotional has as its theme "Into the Wilderness", which fits perfectly with our congregation's Lenten theme: Ways We're Tempted and How God Gets Us Through It.

If you would like to subscribe instead to the Society's daily Lenten devotional e-mail or to download a PDF eReader version of the devotional booklet, please visit the website <http://endhunger.org/lent/>.

Holy Week Announcements

Palm Sunday

On Palm Sunday, the Sunday before Easter, we celebrate Jesus' entry into Jerusalem amidst the joyful welcome of his followers, and we consider how the joy transitioned so quickly into calls for Jesus to be crucified. Our worshipful celebration will begin with the waving of Palms and something special to remind us of that procession so long ago. Come, worship, celebrate, and consider how the joy could change so quickly to crucifixion.

Maundy Thursday Seder Meal

Each Thursday of Holy Week (the week leading up to Easter Sunday), Christians commemorate Jesus' Last Supper when he broke bread and gave the cup to his disciples. Periodically, Christians also gather on that night to partake of a Passover Seder meal, a ritual meal that three of the four gospels strongly suggest was the setting for the Last Supper and a meal that is full of symbolism that helps provide meaning to the events surrounding Jesus' crucifixion. Please plan to join us as we celebrate the Passover Seder this year on Maundy Thursday, April 2, at 6 pm. Advance signup is required (so we have enough food.)

Easter Prayer Vigil

Please make plans to participate in our congregation's annual Easter Prayer Vigil. Just as Jesus' disciples gathered in the Garden of Gethsemene after the Passover meal on Maundy Thursday to pray (as Jesus commanded them), so too will we gather to pray following the Passover meal this Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. Please watch for a sign-up sheet on the Sign-Up table in the Fellowship Hall, and find 30 minutes to keep awake and pray (either at the church building or in your home.)

Journey to the Cross

Holy Week is the time when Christians traditionally re-live the events of Jesus' last week (and weeks) on earth. In recent times, Christians have reduced Holy Week to just a few events and worship services (typically Palm Sunday and Maundy Thursday.) If you would like to truly remember and re-live the events leading to the cross, plan to spend 30-60 minutes in the sanctuary between 8 p.m. Maundy Thursday (April 2) and 8 p.m. Good Friday (April 3). While in the sanctuary, you will travel on a self-guided tour of the events of Jesus last week(s), and you will be encouraged to consider how those events impact your life today and into the future. No sign-up required.

Easter Brunch

Every year, we celebrate Jesus' Resurrection on Easter Sunday with worship and brunch. Please plan to attend this year's Easter Brunch and celebrate Jesus' resurrection with your whole church family. The brunch will take place on Easter Sunday, April 5, at 10a.m. (in between our two worship services.)
