Holy Week Approaches - March 25 - April 1

Throughout my life, Holy Week has been a different kind of time, a special time, a sacred time:

- When I was a child, I spent the week in eager anticipation of Easter. I likely anticipated the Easter egg hunts, the Sunday brunch, and the basket full of candy from my parents as much or more than I anticipated resurrection, but Holy Week was most definitely a time of anticipation. And somehow I emerged from childhood knowing about things like Maundy Thursday and Good Friday and crucifixion and resurrection.
- When I was a teen, I spent the week seeking out new ways to get closer to God. Given the relationship between Holy Week and the Jewish Passover, I remember watching The Ten Commandments just about every year (back when it aired on network television every year.) I even “gave up” stuff for Lent as a way of getting closer to God.
- As a young adult, I continued my tradition of watching The Ten Commandments, and I started getting ever more into the weekly offerings of the Church. I attended worship as many nights of the week as I could.
- As a minister, well, you know, EVERYTHING has changed. My whole week is about journeying to the cross with Jesus and helping guide others there, as well.

But why do I share with you my life-long Holy Week journey?

I've noticed a change in recent years that's worth mentioning: it seems that fewer and fewer people (even regular Sunday morning worshippers in Christian congregations) attend Holy Week services. Maybe more attractive options exist (like the basket of candy that took my attention from the true meaning of Easter as a child). Maybe getting out of the house for an evening worship service isn't as easy as it used to be. Maybe, after a long Lent (the length of Lent hasn't changed, by the way), people are just too tired. But, here's the thing: looking back on my life, I can tell you that the more I invested in Holy Week, the more I GOT from Holy Week.

So, when Holy Week arrives this March 25 through April 1, please take a look at the offerings of FCCGJ: Palm Sunday worship, Maundy Thursday Worship, Prayer Vigil, Easter Sunday Worship (2 completely different worship services), and Easter Brunch (in between the worship services), and make plans to spend some extra time with God in the company of your church family.

- Pastor Brad

Be sure to take time out of your busy week to stop and focus on God during this Lenten season. A great way to do that is to come by the church building on Wednesdays at noon, eat lunch and share stories with your church family, and listen to a talk about “focusing on the cross.” If you’re so inclined, you could even bring a soup to share. Please look for the sign-up sheet on the information table in the Fellowship Hall. And PLEASE BRING FRIENDS.

Lenten Daily Devotionals

Daily throughout Lent

This year’s Lenten Daily Devotional guide, prepared by the Society of St. Andrew, is entitled, Walking in Newness of Life. “In the devotional booklet, you will find daily meditations and prayers that show how renewal begins or is refreshed, through life’s circumstances. These devotionals are written by people of deep and abiding faith: pastors, missionaries, and laypersons from many Christian traditions.” Be sure to pick up a copy at the beginning of Lent, and follow the daily devotional guide to help you get closer to God and prepare yourself for the joy of resurrection on Easter Sunday!

A recent Crosswords had a picture of Melina Mitchell proudly holding her doctoral degree from the Christian Leadership University. Since then, she has been asked to give a little background on how she reached this goal. Here is her reply:

Dear Church,

Thank you for the expressions of congratulations upon the completion of my Doctorate in Ministry from Christian Leadership University. God and my parents have given me a desire to be a life-long learner and have provided me with wonderful opportunities. I went to beautiful new public schools in southeast Denver. I then graduated from Wheaton College in Illinois. I received a Master's Degree in Social Work from Florida State University and then a Master's degree in Public Administration from the University of Oklahoma. While teaching at the U.S. Air Force Academy, I did a doctoral study at the University of Denver in Educational Leadership. I received Principal Licensure from the University of Colorado.

I thank God for all of these wonderful opportunities! I am not exactly sure how God will use my recent degree; I am open to his leading. I continue to enjoy my work at the Veteran's Administration and to fund my daughter's education in a graduate program in health services administration.

Thank you for the love and encouragement as I press on toward the calling!

Stay Informed:

Pastor Brad is Taking a 3-Month Sabbatical

What is a Sabbatical?

Based on the biblical spirit of sabbatical rest, a pastoral sabbatical is an opportunity for a pastor to take time away from the 24/7 responsibilities of pastoral ministry. It's not a vacation. It's not sick leave. It's something else; it's a time to rest, further connect with God, and emerge refreshed for ministry.

When?

Pastor Brad's Sabbatical will begin the day after Easter, April 2, 2018 and conclude July 2, 2018.

Why 3 Months, and Why Now?

The straightforward answer to both of these questions is that it's in our pastors' Letters of Call and contracts with FCCGJ to receive 3 months of sabbatical time after 5 years of service.

Who Will be Leading While pastor Brad is Away?

There's no short answer to this question. Each of Pastor Brad's responsibilities will be assumed by different leaders, a combination of Pastor Melanie, the Elders, the Cabinet, and other leaders.

Watch for more information in upcoming bulletin announcements, newsletter articles, and Moments for Ministry.

Homeward Bound

Last Thursday we had another successful night of serving a delicious dinner to the grateful folks at Homeward Bound shelter. Thank you all for your wonderful support in this ministry.

Did you know we have been serving them for 10 years? I didn't! I found a sign up sheet in an old purse. From receipts in the same old purse I could tell it was from the year 2008. Congratulations to all of you who have so faithfully put together potato casseroles, donated money, time, lettuce, candy, fruit and milk over the years.

If you are interested in helping sometime, please call me!

Outreach Ministry

From The Bookshelf

In January the FCC Bookworms were busy reading Candice Millard's "Destiny of the Republic" -- A tale of the madness, medicine and the murder of a president. This book was recommended to the book club by Carol Clowes who was one of Elsie Granere's caregivers who brought Elsie to book club many times. The book is about our 20th president, James A. Garfield. Garfield grew up in the Disciples of Christ church, became a minister and, so far, is the only minister who has also been a president. He didn't run for president and served reluctantly. Within four months he was assassinated and lived several more months while doctors tried to save him. This is an excellent, well written book that gives insight into one of our more well-read and compassionate presidents. He started the movement for the establishment of Civil Service and worked to improve conditions for blacks. His wife established the first Presidential Library. On the western slope we have Mt. Garfield named a year after his death, Garfield County just to the east of us, Garfield Hall at CMU. There was a Garfield University established in his name in Wichita, Kansas.

FCC Bookworms found that "Dinner with the Smileys" included lots of people. Sarah Smiley, the author, is the mother of three boys and during the deployment of her husband, she invited guests to their home each of the 52 weeks he was gone. Living in Bangor, Maine, their first guest was Senator Susan Collins, and thereafter they had notables from the governor to an Olympic medal winner, to firefighters, and an illustrator. Some of their dinners were held elsewhere, such as the hospital and a nursing home. Read about this unique way one mother filled her husband's chair for a year.

"The Encyclopedia of the Stone-Campbell Movement", edited by: Douglas A. Foster, Paul M. Blowers, Anthony L. Dunnavant and D. Newell Williams has been purchased for the church library. It is shelved along with the other Disciples of Christ material on the north wall. Incidentally, Brad and Susan say that they know Newell Williams.

El Salvador Fundraiser

Please plan on staying after Church on Sunday, April 15 for a baked potato bar dinner. This is a fundraiser for the projects of our mission group going to El Salvador this summer.

This year we are hoping to build two houses for two families in desperate need. We also try to furnish the houses with beds, a stove and a sink if needed.

In addition, both groups from Grand Junction are hoping to collaborate on building a basketball/soccer playground for the school in “our” town.

No need to bring anything but a donation.

Beth

P.S. Save coffee cans for me. We're having a Chinese auction later for the same cause. xoxo

El Salvador

Once again we are planning a mission trip to El Salvador. So far I have nine people going in my group. Four people who are going are from our church! Yay! Dates for this year are July 22- August 4. If you have any inkling you would like to go, please contact me for details.

We will be having a few fundraisers before we leave. It is so rewarding to see something our church built when I go back every year, and how much love we receive in return. Prayerfully consider if God may be calling you to be a part of this amazing ministry.

I am trying to organize a meeting for those who have never been before. Watch this space for details.

Welcome

Welcome

Johnny and Jeanette West joined our church on the 5th of November last year. They come from Dumas, Texas, to be closer to family.

Johnny was born in Roswell, New Mexico, graduating from high school before moving with his family to Stratford, Texas, while Jeannette grew up near Stratford, which is about 90 miles north of Amarillo where she was born. When Jeannette was a senior in high school she met Johnny at a party in Stratford. At that time Johnny was a student at Oklahoma Panhandle State University in Goodwell, just about 30 miles north of Stratford. They married in 1966 at First Christian Church in Stratford and have been married 52 years.

Jeanette attended West Texas A&M University in Canyon, Texas.

Johnny served in the Navy spending some of his time in Vietnam. When they were first married they lived in Taos, New Mexico, in an apartment of a 300-year-old home owned by the Couse family, early pioneers and artists in Taos. That home is now a Historical Site.

They lived 38 years in Dumas, a small Texas town, where Johnny, until his retirement, was employed by BP (British Petroleum) for 31 years. Jeannette, meanwhile, was a bookkeeper, where approximately 12 years of that time she worked for an auto parts company.

After living much of their life around the Oklahoma/Texas Panhandle, they are enjoying the small town atmosphere of Fruita and being closer to family.

They have two sons: Jack and Jonathan. Jack and his wife Kasey live in Boulder with their son Ethan who is now 4 ½. Jack has a PhD in computer science engineering. Their younger son Jonathan and wife Nina are here in Grand Junction with their two daughters, Rylan, who is almost 5 and her younger sister Wren just 18 months. Jonathan is an architect with Chamberlin Architects, and Nina is a physician's assistant at Community Hospital.

They have traveled extensively throughout the United States visiting many of our National Parks and other public lands. Of course their favorites are out here in the west including our own Colorado National Monument.

We welcome them into our membership at First Christian Church, Grand Junction.
