Lent is Almost Here: Something New for Lenten Lunches

Lent is almost here; it begins Wednesday, March 6 this year. As the Lenten season approaches each year, I remind you that Lent is the season of penitence, of focusing ever more of our attention and life on God instead of something else, and each year I encourage you to find something that will help you better focus on God, for at least a season (as a way of developing a habit that will last all year long and, maybe, all life long.)

This year, I want to offer something you can do to turn more of your focus to God that is planned and ready-made for you; all you have to do is show up and participate. The “something” I want to offer is a reformatted version of Lenten Lunches.

In a sense, Lenten Lunches this year will feature everything you enjoy about it: soup, fellowship with your church family, and a cross-focused talk.

In another sense, everything about Lenten Lunches this year will change...just a bit:

- There will be soup, but there will also be other, “catered” food, which will allow you more options and will allow more people to focus on the fellowship and message, rather than on preparing soup.
- There will be a message, but it will not be led by church members; rather, I will lead all the messages.
- There will be participation by the church family in the messages, but it won't be participation by just one church member each week; rather, everyone present will participate every week. I will provide some background to start the message, and the rest will be a discussion that includes everybody. I will be more a moderator than a presenter.
- There will be a symbol from scripture that guides each discussion (and maybe even the theme of each week's food.) The week's symbol will be present with us, before us, in worship each Sunday, as a way to get you thinking and prepared for each discussion on Wednesday, and as a way of helping you focus ever more on God every day during Lent.
- And, the lights of our Lenten cross will be extinguished, one by one, not on Sunday morning but during Lenten Lunches.

Please mark your calendar, and plan to attend at least one Lenten Lunch this year as you are able. It is my hope and prayer that you will encounter the transforming power of God's love in Christ during these lunches (March 13 - April 17.)

- Pastor Brad

Just a little from the Creation Care group

PLASTIC BAGS UGH!!!

Everywhere you look there is another plastic bag. It's like they multiply overnight. We keep saying we need to do something about all those bags we are accumulating, But what? I know if one was to go out on the internet we could find all kinds of things we could make out of plastic bags. I have even seen some pretty interesting things made out of plastic bags in my time at Hobby Lobby. One I really liked was a reusable shopping bag. Go figure! While we know the United States is not the biggest polluters of plastic in our oceans our dumps are filled with all kinds of plastic that will take almost forever before they degrade. That is something I think we can do something about. As a cashier at Hobby Lobby for 10 years I have seen a lot of plastic bags go out the door. I regularly ask my customers if they want a bag and many times they say they don't need one. More people are bringing their own reusable bags. I think the hardest part is to remember to take them out of the car and not just drive them all around the city. While studying the book "Tending To Eden" I got to thinking about how many plastic bags we go through on a daily basis. I averaged 700 customers a day, during the Christmas season it approaches close to 2000 customers many days, and if we give every customer just one bag and there is now 700 stores that is 490,000 bags per day. Are you ready for this number? 152,390,000 bags per year for one company that uses plastic bags and that is a conservative number. The good news is that the Kroger company is going to start to phase out plastic bags and there are others so we are going to be forced to use something different in the future. If you have an idea where we could make usable products out of plastic bags they could be made and sold at the bazaar like we did with the vegetable bags. If you have other ideas on ways to reuse, recycle, or use something different to help in the stewardship of God's creation let any of the members of the Creation Care Committee know. It has been exciting to see how many people have brought their own coffee mugs to use or are using our green mugs during coffee mingle. All of this helps. The more we can reuse an item even if it is plastic the better we will take care of the creation God has blessed us with.

From The Bookshelf

The FCC Bookworms will read "America's First Daughter" by Stephanie Dray & Laura Komoie during the month of April, and the discussions will be led by Pam Baumgartle. Our meeting days are Monday April 1 and 15 at 1:30 p.m. If anyone would like to join our group for this book, please let Joyce Wittwer know by March 1 so that a used book can be ordered for you. The cost will run about $8. Questions???? Ask Joyce 243-6214

FCC Bookworms have just finished reading "Great Expectations" by Charles Dickens. We decided it was time we read a classic. Dickens was born in poverty, but through his writing was able to join the wealthy class. He knew the hardships of being poor and brought out the disparity in many of his books. Since his books are so widely discussed in literature classes, we had lots of help in understanding the meaning behind each of his characters and an inside look at London during that period. There is a copy in the library—check it out.

Beth Sherry has donated another book to the church library. A few months back she sent "Wonder" which was a book her sister, who was a teacher, read to her students. Beth's sister passed away last year and Beth shared both that book and the one she's just donated which is a sequel to "Wonder". It is entitled "Auggie & Me" by R. J. Palacio. Beth also wrote a letter updating us on their life on the eastern slope. Please take time to read it posted on the CWF bulletin board.

Lenten Daily Devotionals

Daily throughout Lent

This year's Lenten Daily Devotional guide, prepared by the Society of St. Andrew, is entitled, Seasons of Joy and Gladness. Based on Zechariah 8:18-20, the devotional considers "the renewal of joy following a time of trial... In the devotional booklet, you will find daily meditations and prayers that show how renewal begins or is refreshed, through life's circumstances. These devotionals are written by people of deep and abiding faith: pastors, missionaries, and laypersons from many Christian traditions." Be sure to pick up a copy at the beginning of Lent, and follow the daily devotional guide to help you get closer to God and prepare yourself for the joy of resurrection on Easter Sunday!

This should make you feel good: Religion Makes Americans Give

Religion is the biggest factor that motivates Americans to give money to good causes, said Karl Zinsmeister in Philanthropy. The average annual charitable donations of those who went to religious services weekly add up to $2,935, more than four times those of people who never attended. Of those who attended weekly or prayed daily, 45 percent did volunteer work in any given week, versus 27 percent of those who didn't. "In study after study, religious practice is the behavioral variable with the strongest and most consistent association with generous giving." . . . Thanks to religious efforts, $44 billion a year is given to overseas charity, and that's more than the total US Government foreign aid budget.

Singles Social Group

I would like to facilitate a new social group for those of us in the church who are single. I think it would be nice to have a group perhaps to go to lunch after church, or go to a movie or a play or some other activity in which we could get to know each other better. If you are interested in participating in such a group, please call Adele Matera at 303-619-2445 or email me at laradematera@earthlink.net. If there is interest we could go to lunch after church on March 3, 2019 to set up what everyone would like to see the group do. If you would need transportation to participate, let me know so we can discuss possible car pooling.

Thanks

RE: Thank You

Dear First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ),

On behalf of all of us at HomewardBound of the Grand Valley, I want to thank you for your gift of $83.32 received on 12/30/2018. This donation benefits families, veterans and singles by giving them access to vital food, shelter and other programs they need to move from surviving to thriving in our community.

HomewardBound is an Enterprise Zone, which means you are entitled to a 25% tax credit in the state of Colorado for donations totaling $50 or more in a year. To receive this credit and have a certificate issued, you will need to provide HomewardBound your organization's Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN). If you have donated to us, and have not yet provided us with this information, please call our Administrative Director, Ashley Giese, at (970) 985-7430.

Your kindness is more than a contribution, it ensures the safety and well-being of everyone in our community, and - most importantly - helps those without a place to go break the cycle of homelessness.

Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Jesse Redmond
Development Director

Food Bank

First Christian Church, Disciples of Christ
1326 N First Street
Grand Junction CO 81501

Dear Food Bank Supporter:

We are very grateful for your recent gift of 495 pounds of items for distribution to our neighbors in need. It is generous donors like you who make it possible for us to be here for our neighbors who find themselves in an emergent/unexpected need of our services.

We use our donations before the food that we purchase. We also stretch donations through food drives, wise purchases and help from other food agencies. With your help and other friends like you, the Community Food Bank has been the Mesa County emergency food resource for those in need for 40 years.

Together, we can provide hunger relief for those Mesa County residents going through a hard time. The Community Food Bank and loyal supporters like you make someone's life a bit brighter through donations such as the one(s) you have made to date in 2018.

Whether you have donated food or other distributable items, provided a monetary gift on behalf of the Community Food Bank toward supporting hunger relief in the past, or if this is your first time making a food donation, we thank you. Please contact us for more information about the food bank or how we can support your efforts going forward with hosting a food drive or another project.

Gratefully,

Marsha Kosteva

Included with this letter is a bulletin insert for your use, thanking your entire congregation for this gift to Society of St. Andrew. Thank you for your prayers for this ministry and for your financial support. Together we are 'Gleaning America's Fields and Feeding America's Hungry.' Your continuing support is what makes this vital feeding ministry possible.

JANUARY UPDATES

The Ultimate Green Ministry!

One part of the Society of St. Andrew's benefits to society, is the "green" effect! We rescue food before it has to be dumped in landfills! Another way to be green, is to save paper. So, would you like to receive your thank you acknowledgements in the future by e-mail? That saves enough to provide an additional 19 servings of food to the hungry, right here in the USA! If you want to join us in "greening" this year, please send me an e-mail at Church@EndHunger.org, to provide me your church e-mail address!

Harvest of Hope

Registrations are being accepted! Make your plans to join us on this life-changing local mission! Groups or individuals from your church can join with us to learn about the causes and consequences of hunger, as well as actually doing something about it! Your participation in this type of camp can be life changing. To see our current schedule, get more information, or register, visit our website EndHunger.org/HoH.

Lenten Devotions

Request your preview kit, and plan the Lenten Devotional season for your congregation. Along with the print version of our devotion booklet, the on-line PDF and the daily e-mail versions are ready, waiting for you, or visit our Facebook page for daily devotions. Please visit EndHunger.org/Lent or call our national office at 800-333-4597.
