Creation Care Covenant Conversation

I'm taking a break from my series of "Faith Talk" articles to write about something important and upcoming in the life of First Christian Church, Grand Junction.

On Sunday, September 8, aka "Kick-Off Sunday", the Creation Care ministry team will be feeding the congregation a meal and presenting for your consideration and discussion a Creation Care Covenant for the congregation. In order to prepare you for September 8, I'll answer a few questions.

Who is this Creation Care ministry team? The Creation Care ministry team is comprised of 12 active members of FCCGJ who care deeply about the role of people in fulfilling the very first purpose given to us by God: taking good care of God's earth/creation (see Genesis 1-2.)

What is a creation care covenant? A covenant, in general, is a kind of promise. Actually, it's the kind of promised agreement between two parties typically referenced in the Bible as being made between God and God's people. A creation care covenant, in particular, is a covenant between a group of people (FCCGJ in this case) and God having to do with our understanding of our job to care for God's good creation. The covenant has two parts. The first part outlines the theological framework - what we believe about God and God's desires - with regard to creation care. The second part, in very broad terms, outlines what we plan to do as a result of the theological framework/claims we made in the first part.

Why adopt a creation care covenant? There are many answers to this question; I'll highlight a few of them. First, since the first purpose given by God to people is to care for creation, it would be a good idea for us to consider how we might do this. Second, as FCCGJ proceeds with a creation care ministry, it's important to define the scope of this ministry and what it involves. Third, as people throughout the world and even the Grand Valley become more concerned with issues involving God's creation, it's possible others outside FCCGJ will become interested in what we're doing...so we need to communicate to them what we're doing.

Does this mean we, members of FCCGJ, must become part of the environmental lobby? ABSOLUTELY NOT!!!! Let me be clear about something: this is not about politics. We are not aligning ourselves with a political party or movement by making this covenant. This covenant is about our relationship with God and honoring the first purpose God gave to humanity. This is a theological thing.

Is this covenant being forced on FCCGJ? Again, ABSOLUTELY NOT. The Creation Care ministry, with affirmation from the FCCGJ Board, will present the covenant to the congregation beginning September 8 and listen to the voices of the congregation as we proceed. In conversation with the congregation, the Creation Care Ministry Team will modify the covenant, if needed, before taking the covenant to the congregation for a congregational vote in December. The Team desires two months of prayerful and thoughtful dialog with the congregation before taking a vote.

I hope to see you and talk with you further on September 8 after worship!

- Pastor Brad

the next published Crosswords.

Our sympathy goes out to Marlene & Johnny Cowan on the passing of Marlene's 1/2 sister Valerie.

My Story:

15. Do you remember what you wanted to “be” when you grew up, as a child? Did it change through your growing up years? Is that what you “became” or did you choose a different path? What did you spend your years doing? Why did you choose that?

16. What do you still want to learn about in life? (It’s never too late to Want to learn!) Dream big! (ie Maybe you want to learn more about gardening, or outer space, or the things about which your grandkids are interested.....)

Want to Talk About Faith and Life?

I (Pastor Brad) will begin offering a new conversation-oriented Sunday School class on Sunday mornings at 9:30am (Conference room). The class will begin on Kick-Off Sunday, September 8.

Each series of the class will be 4-6 weeks in length and will be focused on a different topic.

The first series of six sessions is entitled, “What do you believe about God, Church, and Faith...and why?” The series will be based on the book, “A Faith of Your Own: Making Sense of What you REALLY Believe” by Ron Allen, one of my seminary professors.

If you are wondering how we can have a class at 9:30am on Sunday mornings (when we typically have a worship service beginning at 9:00am), the leadership of the first service has decided to continue our summer schedule of offering only one worship service at 10:50 am into the Fall and possibly beyond. When we revert to the previous schedule of having two Sunday morning worship services, I will adjust this class accordingly.

— Pastor Brad

RE: Thank You

Dear First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ),

On behalf of all of us at HomewardBound of the Grand Valley, I want to thank you for your gift of $41.66 received on 08/05/2019. This donation benefits families, veterans and singles by giving them access to vital food, shelter and other programs they need to move from surviving to thriving in our community.

HomewardBound is an Enterprise Zone, which means you are entitled to a 25% tax credit in the state of Colorado for donations totaling $50 or more in a year. To receive this credit and have a certificate issued, you will need to provide HomewardBound your organization's Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN). If you have donated to us, and have not yet provided us with this information, please call our Administrative Director, Ashley Giese, at (970) 985-7430.

Your kindness is more than a contribution, it ensures the safety and well-being of everyone in our community, and - most importantly - helps those without a place to go break the cycle of homelessness.

Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Jesse Redmond
Development Director
