Faith Talk: What is The Trinity?

[This is the eighth in my summertime series called "Faith Talk". Each article in the series will provide probing questions and commentary about issues important to faith about which non-churched people you encounter might be curious.]

Today's topic: What is the Trinity, and where did the notion of Trinity come from?

Perhaps you've encountered some un-churched people who've questioned you about the Trinity. I know I have. The questioning I receive typically has to do with two things: (1) How can Christians claim their faith to be Biblically based when such an important word as "Trinity" does not appear in the Bible?; and, (2) if the word "Trinity" is not in the Bible, where did it come from? I'll try to address these two issues and offer some things for you to think and talk about.

The word "Trinity" is not in the Bible. This is true; the Greek word that translates into "Trinity" did not appear until AD 180. However, this does not at all mean the concept is not found in scripture. Throughout the Bible, many words, titles, or descriptions are used for God. What we think of as the three persons of the Trinity appear very frequently. At the close of one of his letters, the Apostle Paul even prayed, "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you (1 Corinthians 13:14)." Paul's prayer is trinitarian without using the word "Trinity." In other words, the concept of Trinity is incredibly Biblical, even if the word is not found in the scriptures so that the word "Trinity" was developed to describe what was found in the Bible.

The origins of Trinity as a central tenet of Christian theology. I've already mentioned that the word appeared in AD 180, but why did the word appear? (Note: my answer is by necessity a simplification of something that is not so simple.) Christian leaders sought a way to express their monotheistic faith without glossing over the reality that the Bible describes three distinctly different modes of expression (or persons) for the one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The attempt to adequately describe exactly how God is manifest in these three distinct modes of expression became the subject of considerable debate for hundreds of years, during which time many of the ideas promoted were deemed unorthodox, if not heretical. Further, the doctrine of Trinity developed differently in various parts of the world. (I encourage you to research the origins of Trinity for yourself; the history is fascinating.)

What does all of this mean for us as Christians? In simplest terms, the word "Trinity" to describe the God we find in scripture calls us to consider if the word/concept adequately describes both the God of scripture and the God of our experience. Does "Trinity" describe your encounter with God in scripture and your experience of God in life? Why/how?

Enjoy the conversation!

- Pastor Brad

West side of the parking lot

Trunk or treating is a safe, fun alternative to door-to-door "trick or treating"! Cars that have been decorated for Halloween will be lined up in our parking lot with trunks full of goodies. Children go trunk to trunk in their costumes to collect their treats. Please help us reach out to the children and their parents in our neighborhood by decorating your car trunk and spending a couple hours meeting them. Tammy Ostermiller will provide a chili supper for those who are working this event.

We will be collecting candy to hand out to the kids. The collection box will be in the Narthex.

If you will be decorating your car trunk for this event please let us know on the sign up sheet on in the Fellowship Hall.

New additions to our side lawn:

Little Free Library and Love in Action Box

(Thanks to Lamar for making them and for the many volunteers who put them up for us!)

Little Free Library

Drop off books, in the box, or pick up a book to read any time you want! The children's books seem to be going very fast, so if you see any at a book sale or want to pick up a few at a book store, that would be awesome!

Let Susan Barton know if you have any questions.

Love in Action Box

This box is a place to drop off supplies that people in need may want. We try to keep shelf stable foods (ie bottled water, peanut butter crackers, trail mix, beef jerkey, hard candy etc), seasonal clothing (ie t-shirts, socks, men's/women's underwear etc) and toiletry items (ie hotel size soaps, shampoos, conditioners, lotions, travel packs of tissues, women's feminine products etc.) and other things like band-aids, school supplies etc.

Let Susan Barton know if you have any questions.

RE: Thank You

Dear First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ),

On behalf of all of us at HomewardBound of the Grand Valley, I want to thank you for your gift of $41.66 received on 08/05/2019. This donation benefits families, veterans and singles by giving them access to vital food, shelter and other programs they need to move from surviving to thriving in our community.

HomewardBound is an Enterprise Zone, which means you are entitled to a 25% tax credit in the state of Colorado for donations totaling $50 or more in a year. To receive this credit and have a certificate issued, you will need to provide HomewardBound your organization's Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN). If you have donated to us, and have not yet provided us with this information, please call our Administrative Director, Ashley Giese, at (970) 985-7430.

Your kindness is more than a contribution, it ensures the safety and well-being of everyone in our community, and - most importantly - helps those without a place to go break the cycle of homelessness.

Thank you for your support!
