On Being Church and the Christmas Bazaar

“They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.” - Acts 2:42-47

Most of you likely know that the above passage is what I call my “go-to-scripture”. It’s the passage from the Bible that inspires me the most. It’s an amazing vision of Church that we should collectively aspire to live into.

Enter the preparations for the CWF Christmas Bazaar. During the week leading up to the annual Bazaar, I feel like I see so many portions of this vision realized here at FCCGJ more than at any other time:

- On Sunday, at the end of worship, Lily asked me to PRAY for the Bazaar and all the preparations. Pray? Pray!!!! I have to tell you, as a pastor, I am so thankful when people in the congregation ask me to pray for something that doesn’t feel rote or required (like prayer before a meeting). It was so awesome. “They devoted themselves to the prayers.”
- After the Board Meeting on Sunday, I helped some others who were in the building setting up tables and chairs...and talking about how some others would be arriving later in the day to help move things from storage to the building. And then, all during this week, the building is FILLED with people, working together, BEING together, like a family. “All who believed were together.” “...they spent much time together in the temple...”
- On Sunday, while working, I was offered a bowl of chili. On Monday, when I returned from lunch, a group of women were eating together around a table, resting after a hard morning of work, sharing food and stories. “They devoted themselves...to the breaking of bread...” “...They...ate their food with glad and generous hearts.”
- Each day this week, I’ve seen the number of donated used and hand-crafted items grow, each item given with care by a member or friend of this congregation to be used for outreach, for lovingly helping people, for God’s work. “...They would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need.”

Friends, I know the Bazaar is hard work. I know we’re aging as a congregation, and the work becomes more difficult with each passing year. At the same time, I am confident that I am witnessing First Christian Church, Grand Junction, truly BE church as much, if not more, than ever, as I watch you all work together to serve God in the week leading up to the annual CWF Christmas Bazaar! This amazing vision for Church, for congregation, you are living proof that it can be realized in the 21st century. Let’s keep it going!

- Pastor Brad

Conversational Sunday School Class Update

A new series in the Conversational Sunday School class (Sunday mornings at 9:30am in the large Sunday School Classroom) is scheduled to begin soon. Mark your calendars for November 10.

The first series of classes entitled, "What do you believe?" has ended. As planned, we will take a break for several weeks before reconvening with a new series. The new series will be called "Giving Thanks in ANY Situation" and will explore the challenges of giving thanks to God amidst difficult circumstances.

While the sessions of the series, which runs November 10-November 24, will be conversational, I will focus attention on specific Psalms to encourage dialog.

Advent Memorial Dinner And Service

First Christian Church Fellowship Hall

Friday December 13, 2019

When you have lost someone special, the holidays can be especially difficult. Please come to the Advent Memorial Dinner and share memories. You will find support from others who also are remembering the past but finding ways to create new traditions.

Please contact Joyce Wittwer, 243-6214 by Dec. 3rd to let her know how many in your family will attend. The potluck is followed by a Memorial Service.

There is always room for you.

From The Bookshelf

The FCC Bookworms just completed “Lilac Girls” by Martha Hall Kelly. It is a novel based on the real life of three women during WWII. A New York socialite, Caroline Ferriday, sought help in bringing the “Rabbits” to the U.S. for reconstructive surgery. One of those Polish “Rabbits”, Kasia, was operated on at the women’s concentration camp in Ravensbruck by the third woman, Herta, who was a German doctor. These three women have quite a story that gives us another glimpse into the atrocities, heroism and compassion during this time in history. Available in the library.

Church Decorating Day

Come and help decorate the church for Advent on November 25th

Beginning around 9:00 AM on November 25th, we will put the trees up. You are encouraged to come early if you can, and stay as long as you can to participate in this fun event. It is a great way to start the season. Please sign up in Fellowship Hall so we can have a count of how many can come and help!

“Oh Christmas tree, oh Christmas tree, how lovely are your branches”

Remember to bring an ornament to decorate the Church Family Christmas Tree on Sunday, December 1

Turkeys are needed for the FREE Thanksgiving Day Meal

Grandma's Attic! Open House

There will be an open house for any Church members wanting to look and purchase on Friday, November 8, 2019 from 10:00 am until noon.

Welcome

WELCOME BONNIE

Bonnie Watts joined our church this past summer, and we welcome her into our congregation. She was born in Salida but her family moved to Georgetown when she was eleven. She has two brothers and a sister, and her mother still lives in Georgetown. After graduation from high school Bonnie went to Westminster College in Salt Lake City and received her degree in history and education in 1978.

After graduation Bonnie had a wide range of jobs which included driving school buses for the school district in Georgetown, working on construction crews, driving snow plows on I-70 and clerking in ski shops. She then got a job as a paralegal in Idaho Springs for an attorney in general practice as well as handling some divorce and estate cases. In order to continue in her job, she went to night school four nights a week for nine months to become certified. She worked for that attorney 12 years until his retirement. She continued free lancing as a paralegal working in Denver, Summit County and Idaho Springs until she moved to Montrose in 2002 where she became a screener at the Montrose airport. In 2007 she transferred to Telluride, and in 2011 she applied for an administrative position with the TSA in Grand Junction and feels fortunate to have been awarded the job.

Exotic birds are Bonnie's passion, and she has three birds. Zeus is her blue and gold macaw, 22 years old, and he has been with her for 20 years. She also has two African grays. She has hand raised Eno from a chick, and he is now 14 years old. Her other gray, Tory, came to live with her after her friend died.

Next to dogs and cats, birds are the most popular pet. Both dogs and cats are domesticated, but birds are still a wild animal and require much care and attention. Bonnie devotes a great amount of her free time to their well being. She says it is nice to have them greet her when she comes home. She and a few other fellow bird lovers created an on-line group that started providing items required for the support of birds that have been taken from an unsafe environment. Their Facebook group has grown to 4,000 participants who donate money for toys, food and maintenance; and this past year the group donated over $50,000 which was matched by various companies to support these abused birds.

Lily Fitch invited Bonnie to visit us, and she has recently agreed to accept the position of Vice-President of our CWF ladies group. We are pleased to have Bonnie as part of our congregation.

Thanks

RE: Thank You

Dear First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ),

On behalf of all of us at HomewardBound of the Grand Valley, I want to thank you for your gift of $41.66 received on 10/12/2019. This donation benefits families, veterans and singles by giving them access to vital food, shelter and other programs they need to move from surviving to thriving in our community.

HomewardBound is an Enterprise Zone, which means you are entitled to a 25% tax credit in the state of Colorado for donations totaling $50 or more in a year. To receive this credit and have a certificate issued, you will need to provide HomewardBound your organization's Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN). If you have donated to us, and have not yet provided us with this information, please call our Administrative Director, Ashley Giese, at (970) 985-7430.

Your kindness is more than a contribution, it ensures the safety and well-being of everyone in our community, and - most importantly - helps those without a place to go break the cycle of homelessness.

Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Jesse Redmond
Development Director

Dear Donor:

We are very grateful for your recent gift of 180 pounds to help us fulfill our mission. It is generous donors like you who make it possible for us to be here when our neighbors need assistance.

We use our donated food before food the food that we purchase. We also stretch donations through food drives, wise purchases and help from other food agencies. With your help and other friends like you, the Community Food Bank has been the Mesa County emergency food resource for those in need for 40 years.

Together, we can provide hunger relief for those Mesa County residents going through a hard time. The Community Food Bank and loyal supporters like you make someone's life a bit brighter through donations such as the one(s) you have made.

Whether you have donated food (or other consumable items) or provided a monetary gift on behalf of the Community Food Bank toward supporting hunger relief in the past, or if this is your first time making a food donation, we thank you. Please contact us for more information about the food bank or how we can support your efforts going forward with hosting a food drive or another project.

Gratefully,

Marsha Kosteva
